

ARTICLE I - PURPOSE AND AUTHORITY

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall be known as the Virginia Chapter of the National Emergency Number Association, also referred to as "Chapter" or "VIRGINIA NENA". The Chapter is chartered by the National Emergency Number Association henceforth referred to as "Association" or "NENA", a 501(c)(3) non-stock corporation. The Chapter is separate and a distinct organization, operating independently of the Association and financially responsible for its own operations, but shall comply with the Bylaws of the Association.

Section 2. Object

The object of the Chapter shall be to:

- A. Lead in the development, availability, implementation and enhancement of a universal emergency telephone number common to all jurisdictions through research, planning, training, and education;
- B. Represent its members before communication regulatory agencies and policy making bodies; and strive toward citizens having immediate access to emergency public safety services so that safety of human life, protection of property, and civic welfare are benefited to the utmost degree;
- C. Aid and assist in the timely collection and dissemination of information relating to a universal emergency telephone number;
- D. Enable all citizens to have immediate access to emergency public safety services so that safety of human life, protection of property and civic welfare are benefited to the utmost degree; and
- E. Provide for membership in this Chapter in accordance with the language and intent of its By-laws, which are now, and may later be, in effect. Membership shall not be limited other than by classification and good character, and shall have such rights and privileges by classification as may be provided from time to time.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members

Applications for Chapter membership and the reporting thereof, shall be executed upon standard forms as approved and directed by the Executive Board of NENA. All applications are submitted directly to the Association office. The President of the Chapter may, at any time, request for the Association office to produce a list of the Chapter members

Section 2. Membership Designations

The membership of the Chapter shall be divided into the classes of Public Sector Member, Private Sector Member, Telecommunicator, Associate Member, NENA Hall of Fame Member, and Life Member. Members shall be admitted in accordance with the classification requirements set forth in this Article. Membership shall not be denied on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, age or numerical limitation. All members are eligible to serve on committees if appointed.

2.1. Public Sector Member

Public sector members are members who are employed by, or appointed or elected to, a government or quasi-government agency, and who are or have been responsible for some aspect of design, promotion, construction, installation, maintenance, command and/or operation of public safety communications systems which members include those who have retired from such positions. Public sector members shall be entitled to all rights of membership.

2.2. Private Sector Member

Private sector members are members who provide products or services related to public safety emergency systems and communications industries, which members include those who have retired from such positions. Private sector members shall have the right to vote and hold the elected offices of President, Vice President, Secretary Treasurer, or Member At Large, as outlined in Section 4, and may serve on committees if appointed.

2.3. Telecommunicator

Telecommunicator members are members who are certified, engaged in, employed as, or retired from non-management and non-supervisory positions, including call-takers, who wish to further their career in the emergency communications industry and support the goals and objectives of NENA. Telecommunicator members may participate in chapter activities and vote on the chapter level matters pertaining to chapter business in accordance with the chapter bylaws. Telecommunicator members may not hold an elected office.

2.4. Associate Member

Associate members are members who are not eligible for public sector or private sector membership but who wish to support the goals and objectives of NENA. Associate members may not vote, nominate candidates for the Chapter Executive Board, or hold any office on the Chapter Executive Board. Associate members will not receive the annual membership directory.

2.5. Hall of Fame Member

This Class of membership is extended by special action of the NENA Executive Board. Those so honored shall not pay dues, but have all privileges held during regular membership.

2.6. Life Member

Life Membership in an honorary category determined by a member's regular classification and shall be bestowed by majority vote of the Chapter's general membership. Such member shall not pay dues, but have all privileges held during regular membership

2.7. All NENA members shall also have automatic membership in the Chapter as appropriate and available. The Chapter's Executive Board shall determine all questions of membership eligibility, including eligibility for nomination and election.

Section 3. Dues

3.1. Membership dues are payable as of January 1 each year. Members who are delinquent over 90 days from January 1 may be dropped from the Association and Chapter membership rolls in accordance with the association executive board policy.

3.2. Dues may not be raised more than 10% in any one year except by a two-thirds vote of the entire association executive board. The National Emergency Number Association (NENA) sets annual dues rates for the Association, by membership category, and a designated portion of those dues shall be returned to the Chapter

Section 4. Voting and Officer Restrictions
